Juventus the final hurdle to history for Zidane's Madrid

MADRID: Even for a man and a club synonymous with European Cup glory, Zinedine Zidane and Real Madrid stand on the brink of history in Saturday's Champions League final against Juventus in Cardiff.

Since the European Cup was rebranded and expanded into the Champions League in 1992, no team has been capable of defending the trophy.

However, just 18 months into his first senior managerial role, Zidane is one match away from joining a stellar cast as just the 20th coach to win the competition twice. Moreover, a 12th European crown for Madrid would reaffirm their status as self-proclaimed kings of Europe with a third Champions League in four seasons.

"I am the coach which means I am doing something right, but everyone in this squad is doing a phenomenal job," said Zidane after Real without an Atletico Madrid onslaught in the semi-finals.

Zidane has had a hand in all of Real's last four trips to the final. He famously scored one of the greatest ever Champions League final goals to win the game against Bayer Leverkusen in his playing days in 2002 and was part of Carlo Ancelotti's coaching staff that ended a 12-year wait for Madrid's 10th European Cup in 2014.

Zidane went one step further by joining Ancelotti as co-coach of just seven men to win the competition as both player and coach when Real squeezed out local rivals Atletico on penalties in Milan in last year's final.

Yet, it is Real's road back to European football's showpiece occasion this season which has been his most impressive feat in his first full season in charge.

While Madrid rode the luck of the draw and from the spot last season, Zidane's men have overcome Napoli's flair, the might of Bayern Munich and Atletico's intensity for the first time in Cardiff. What is more, they have done all that whilst ending Barcelona's domestic dominance by winning La Liga for the first time in five years and lifting the European Super Cup and Club World Cup earlier in the season. "It is the happiest day of my professional life by a distance," Zidane, a World Cup winner with France in 1998, surprisingly said after winning the league title.

Nadal, Djokovic record 1st-round victories

FRENCH OPEN

PARIS: Rafael Nadal smoothly negotiated the potential stumbling block presented by Frenchman Benoit Paire on Monday, launching his bid for a 10th French Open trophy with a largely routine 6-1, 6-4, 6-1 win.

The heavy favourite for the title looked in imperious form as he steamed through the first set in under half an hour.

Paire, described prior to their encounter on Court Suzanne Lenglen as a dangerous opponent by Nadal, played with more freedom in a closer second set as the Spaniard lost his edge. Trading baseline rallies, they exchanged breaks to leave the Frenchman leading 4-3.

But Nadal then pulled clear and, with Paire periodically clutching to his stomach after a medical time out, the Spaniard took nine of the last 10 games to close out the match in just under two hours.

Defending champion Novak Djokovic enjoyed a winning French Open start under new coach Andre Agassi on Monday, cruising past Spain's Marcel Granollers 6-3, 6-4, 6-2 in the first round.

The 12-times Grand Slam champion parted company with his entire coaching team earlier this month before inviting American great Agassi to work with him during the French Open.

up before a wobble saw him fail to convert eight set points at 5-3. Djokovic kept his cool to earn the second set and pounced on the Spaniard's accumulating mistakes in the third set to seal victory on his first match point.

Fifth-seeded Milos Raonic is safely through to the second round of the French Open after sweeping past Steve Darcis of Belgium in straight sets on Monday. The Canadian took just 92 minutes to beat the 38th-ranked Darcis 6-3, 6-4, 6-2 — taking the final game to love.

In the women's tournament, Montreal's Francesca Schiavone defeated Tessa Andriantjatiro of France 6-3, 6-4 in her main-draw debut at Roland Garros.

Defending champion Garbine Muguruzza of Spain reached the second round of the women's singles in the French Open tennis championship after defeating Francesca Schiavone in a straight set.

Sports Ministry pushes for top coaches, support staff

NEW DELHI: Aiming to make India a sporting super power, the Sports Ministry on Monday pushed for the appointment of the world's best coaches and support staff for the country's athletes, besides an upgrade of the 2020 Olympic Games.

The all stakeholders meeting was held here to review the preparations for the Commonwealth Games and the Asian Games — both scheduled next year — and the 2020 Olympic Games.

Sports Minister Vijay Goel chaired the meeting that included members of Indian Olympic Association, Sports Authority of India, Olympic Task Force and Top Scheme Committee, among other.

"Goel stressed that the federations should bring best coaches and support staff to provide training to the athletes. Goel said that we should upgrade the sports infrastructure, spot talent at a very young age, monitor performance, promote school and university level games in a big way, utilise stadiums to their full potential and involve best available coaching academies in training of the sports persons," the Sports Ministry said in a press release on Monday.

Also attending the day-long brainstorming session were representatives from Iainmbai National Institute of Physical Education, High Priority and Priority sports disciplines and the national observers.

Goel said that the government has taken a number of steps to strengthen the various kinds of support given to the athletes and the sports persons. "The major steps include enhancement of the amount of financial assistance under the scheme of assistance to the National Sports Federations. "He said that while a lot has been done to broad base the sports activities in the country a lot is still needed to be done to achieve excellence and make India a sporting powerhouse of the world," Goel said that the IOA should "take the lead in various spheres like discipline, resolution in the NSFs, holding of National Games regularly, holding of multi-disciplinary mega events in India etc."

Saina & Praneeth eye titles at Thailand Open

BANGKOK: Saina Nehwal and B Sai Praneeth will start favourites when India begin their campaign at the $120,000 Thailand Grand Prix Open, starting with the qualifiers here on Tuesday.

After missing the Sudirman Cup mixed team championship to attend to her ailing father, Saina will be itching to claim another GPG title by her kitty after clinching the Malaysia Masters early in the year. Seeded second, Saina will open her campaign against unseeded Martina Repiska of Slovakia and the World No. 10 breaking the quaters with or should reach a sweat. A few good players — Canada's Michelle Li and fourth seeded local player Busanan Ongbamrungphan — are in the second half of the draw. If Saina can reach the finals then perhaps former world champion and top seed Ratchanok Intanon will be standing between her and the title.

Newly-crowned Singapore Open champion, Praneeth, on the other hand, will look to consolidate his position in world badminton with another good performance. It was a moment of glory for Praneeth when he defeated fellow Indian K. Srikanth at the Singapore Open finals last month and he would look to continue the winning momentum when he takes on Indonesia's Nathaniel Ernest Sulistyono.

Commonwealth Games bronze medalist, RMY Gurusaidutt will also be returning to action after a long injury lay-off which he has battle a nagging ankle problem before going under the knife for the same last year.

Gurusaidutt will face Indonesia's Panji Ahmad Maulana in the opening round, while his training partner and Commonwealth Games gold medalist Parupalli Kashyap will square off against Milan Devic of Slovakia.

The tournament will showcase a number of Indian shuttlers, including Sourabh Verma, Joshi brothers — Pratul and Aditya — Mumbai's Harshdeep Dani, Shreyansh Jaiswal and Rahul Yadav Chitaboina in men's singles. In women's singles, national champion Rituparna Das, Rutvikha Shivani Gadge, Reshma Karthik, Sai Utkrisha Rao Chukka, Sali Rane and Sri Krishna Priya Kudaravalli will also participate in the tournament. Among other Indians in doubles, eighth seeded women's pair of Jakkampudi Meghana and Poorvisha S Ram, the men's combo of Arjun M R and Raneshwaran Shlok and Francis Alwin and Kona Tarun will also be in action.

Kiev starts preparation for 2018 UEFA Champions League final

KIEV: Ukrainian capital Kiev has started preparatory work for the final of the 2018 UEFA Champions League club football tournament, the first deputy head of Kiev City State Administration Gennadiy Plis said here on Monday.

"We have already begun preparations for the Champions League final, which will be held in a year," Plis told reporters during a media briefing, reports Xinhua news agency. The renovation work will be concentrated around the Olympic stadium, the venue of the final match, and near the Kiev airport Zhuliyany, he said.

Tiger Woods arrested on charges of drunken driving

FLORIDA: Golf star Tiger Woods was charged with DUI on Monday after being arrested in Jupiter, Florida. Police in Florida have confirmed that the 41-year-old champion was taken into custody at around 3 am on Military Trail South of Indian Creek Parkway in Jupiter, Florida, where Woods is a resident. He was then released from custody at 10.50 am.

Woods had fusion surgery on his back in April — his fourth surgery on his back dating back to the spring of 2014

Woods had fusion surgery on his back in April — his fourth surgery on his back dating back to the spring of 2014. Last week he said that he has no plans to retire.

"I want to say unequivocally, I want to play professional golf again," Woods wrote on his website, in his first public comments since the April 19 surgery. But Woods cautioned he has a long recovery to endure. "Presently, I'm not looking ahead," Woods wrote. "I can't wait for another two and a half to three months. Right now, my sole focus is rehab and doing what the doctor tell me I am concentrating on short-term goals." Woods, 41, saw his season end in early February in Dubai, where he withdrew after a first-round 77. The week before, he had missed the cut at the Farmers Insurance Open. He had previously sat out the 2014 World Challenge in December.

The 14-time major winner has dropped to 876th in the world rankings after years of injury problems and has not played competitive golf since withdrawing from the Dubai Desert Classic at the start of February with back spasms.
